

STRAIGHTFORWARD THEATRE

Edward and Eliza and the smashing of the van

- based on a true story -

The year is 1867. Edward Brett and his Irish wife, Eliza are struggling to make a living from their small shop. Edward's brother, a popular policeman, is shot dead during the rescue of two Irish Republican prisoners in Manchester. A huge upsurge of anti-Irish feeling sweeps the country and three Irishmen are publicly hanged. Edward and Eliza struggle to cope with their personal loss, their loyalty to each other and their different cultural backgrounds. Written to coincide with the 150th anniversary of real events, the play explores dilemmas that are still very relevant today.

Glossop Labour Club

11-13 Chapel Street, Glossop, SK13 8AT

7.30pm Sunday 15th October

Tickets £4 / £3 (low waged)

On sale over the bar or reserve by email and pay on the night

email: glossoplabourclub@gmail.com